

0050 DMTS

Industrial Hygienist

Location: Washington State

Duration: 6+ months

DOE facility in Washington State has immediate need for an Industrial Hygienist for a 6+ month assignment.

Job Duties: Assist with the implementation and review of the Industrial Hygiene needs and requirements. Duties will include: review of carcinogen control program, review and update baseline hazard assessments, perform annual review of permit confined spaces, assist in the conduct of workplace hazard assessments, provide monitoring support to the various work groups, interpret results and convey the results to the work group or monitored individual. Assist in the review and updating of policies and procedures which require IH authority. Perform other IH tasks as necessary.

Requirements: Bachelor degree and 5+ year's experience